 Wednesday's exploratory is on a rotation and will change each week. **

Notes:

We had a wonderful first week of school! I am enjoying getting to know everybody immensely! What a great group of kiddos. (:

Please note that there is a two-hour delayed start on Wednesday, Aug. 31. School begins at 10:00am.

Most days your child will come home with various math, language arts, and extra practice papers. Some will be unfinished, while others are complete. In first grade, I do not assign homework and it is always up to you whether to complete these at home as homework. They do not need to be returned. Regardless, I do encourage you and your child to read together every night!

This is a friendly reminder that you should send two snacks to school with your child every day.
